FROM OUR DONORS

LEGACY SOCIETY

Share in BTM's history and legacy by becoming a member of our Legacy Society. Members of our Legacy Society have designated a percentage of their charitable planned giving to BTM. This can include remembering BTM in your will or bequests, estate plans, gifts of life insurance, gifts of retirement, charitable remainder trusts, gifts of appreciated stock, or gifts of real estate.

By becoming a part of the BTM Legacy Society, you can share BTM's vision for the future and ensure that we continue to provide Maryland with a professional dance company.

Thank you.

"Exposure to the arts in our society today is critically important, not only for the present, but for future generations. Without the contributions the arts in general and ballet in particular make to our society, our social values will suffer and our children will miss the inspiring gifts to their souls that this dance form provides. As custodians of our social growth and development, we cannot turn our backs on any established art form. The arts are, after all, the linchpin of our societal values. We must provide the financial underpinning for the ballet so that future generations can experience the spiritual and intellectual gifts it offers. This provides us the mandate to secure the ballet's enduring financial future." -Dr. Albert Del Negro and Patrisha Creevy, former BTM Board members and current Legacy Society Donors

For more information on planned giving or to make a donation, please contact the BTM office at btmmgr@balletmaryland.org.

THEA B. PINSKEY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Thea B. Pinskey Memorial Scholarship Fund is named in memory of Ballet Theatre of Maryland longtime supporter, Thea B. Pinskey.

Thea, along with her husband Howard, were pillars of the community, both in business and the arts.

After moving to Annapolis in 1983, Thea became an integral part of the Annapolis Cultural Arts community. She was a lifelong supporter of Ballet Theatre of Maryland, as well as many other cultural organizations. She served on the Board of the Annapolis Symphony Orchestra as Education Committee Chair, as Historian for Caritas Society of St. John's College, and was a valuable and contributing member of The Annapolis Chapter of Hadassah, the Mitchell Gallery, Brandeis, and the 21st Century Club. Thea was an active member of K'neseth Israel synagogue for many years, several book clubs and mahjong groups.

Thea was a constant supporter of the performing and visual arts in Annapolis, Baltimore, and Washington, D.C. A lover of all art forms, Thea could be found on any given evening attending operas, ballets, theatre performances, or exhibits. Both Thea and Howard died in early 2021, only 5 days apart from each other. Their deaths were immeasurable losses for all who knew them, as well as all who will never get the chance to know them. This scholarship fund is designed to keep Thea's memory alive and help future dancers follow their dreams.

To make a donation to the fund, scan this QR code or visit <https://www.balletmaryland.org/thea-pinskey-memorial-scholarship>

The Sleeping Beauty

Choreography: Restaged by Nicole Kelsch after Marius Petipa

Music: Peter Illyich Tchaikovsky

Costume Design: Amanda Cobb, Alyssa Johnson-Taylor, Karen Kralik, Karissa Kralik, Clara Molina, Laurie Molina

Costumes for the Court: Courtesy of Colonial Players

Lighting Design: Stacie Johnson-Leske

Sets and Props: Aaron Bauer

Prologue: On the day of Princess Aurora's christening, all the good fairies in the kingdom gather to celebrate. Each fairy bestows a gift upon Aurora: making her graceful, beautiful, and generous, as well as giving her a melodious voice and good temperament. Unfortunately, the King and Queen's Master of Ceremonies had forgotten to invite the wicked fairy Carabosse. She crashes the party and lays a curse on Aurora to prick her finger with a spindle on her 16th birthday and die.

Everyone at court is distraught, but the Lilac Fairy has not yet given Aurora her gift. She is able to soften Carabosse's curse; instead of pricking her finger and dying, Aurora will fall asleep. She will wake in 100 years through the power of true love's kiss.

Act I: Sixteen years later, the court gathers once more for Aurora's birthday. At the party, Aurora receives four suitors who wish to win her hand in marriage. Carabosse enters in disguise and offers the Princess a bouquet of flowers. Aurora accepts it, pricking her finger on the spindle hidden inside. The Lilac Fairy scares Carabosse away and enchants the rest of the castle to fall asleep with their princess.

Act II: 100 years after Aurora falls asleep, Prince Florimund is out hunting near the overgrown castle. The Lilac Fairy appears and sends him a vision of Princess Aurora. In Aurora's dreams, Aurora and Florimund fall in love. The Lilac Fairy leads Florimund through the castle to Aurora's bedside. He kisses her, waking Aurora and the rest of the court from their hundred-year slumber.

Act III: It is Aurora and Florimund's wedding day. Their guests, including the Jewel Fairies, Puss in Boots and the White Cat, Princess Florine and the Bluebird, and Little Red Riding Hood with the Wolf, come together to celebrate their happiness.
